

Lansburgh & Bro

Clearing of Odds and Ends in Infants' Dept.

Two dozen Colored Dresses, lace and embroidery trimmed, made of fine chambray, in pretty checks; also plain colors; sizes up to five years. Worth 95c and $1.50. To close.

49c.

Children's Sunbonnets, made of lawn and P. K. colors, Pink, Blue, and White. Were 50c and 60c. To close.

39c.

Broken sizes in Mull Hats and Caps, some worth as high as $1.98. To close.

69c.

A few P. K. Jackets, sizes 1, 2, 3, and 4; colors, Pink, Blue, and White; have been selling for $2.48 and $2.98. To close.

98c.

Lansburgh & Bro

420 to 426 Seventh Street.

OUR DISCOUNT

Sale of Furniture, Crockery, and Housefurnishings will positively end on Saturday at 1 P. M. Prices will never be so low again. As usual, credit makes the buying easy.

GROGAN'S Mammoth Credit House,
817, 819, 821, 823 7th St. N. W.,
Bet. H and I Sts.

KNABE

Pianos
Other Make Uprights at All Prices.
PIANOS FOR RENT.

Wm. Knabe & Co.,
1209 Pa. Ave. N. W.

AS NICE AS A CAR RIDE.
Another letter that convinced: "I had seven teeth extracted by use of vitalized air, used by the Vero Dentists, and I felt no pain or bad effects, it being as pleasant as a trolley ride."
"J. E. HAMMOND, 219 E. St. N. E."
Remember, we do all work known to the dental profession. Cleaning, extracting, examination, and estimations free.

VERO DENTISTS,
Over Davis' Hat Store, 12th and Pa. Ave.
ENTRANCE, 12th St.
Opposite Raleigh Hotel.
Hours, 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.; Sundays, 9 to 12 m.

PLAITING
Pink, Red, Blue, and all shades of the electric light. Machines repaired and warranted, $1.00.
At OPPENHEIMER'S, 514 1/2 St. N. W.

Painless Extraction 25c.
FREE—When teeth are ordered. Sets of Teeth, $4. up. Beautiful Crowns, $8 up. Gold Fillings, 75c and up. Silver Fillings, 50c and up.
DR. PATTON, Dentist,
1213 Twelfth Street N. W.

WE HAVE MANY ESPECIALLY GOOD VALUES IN SLIGHTLY USED

PIANOS
That we are willing to sell on very liberal terms.
DROOP'S MUSIC HOUSE,
Steinway and Other Pianos,
925 Penna. Ave.

ROYAL Baking Powder.
Highest of all in leavening strength.—U. S. Govt. Best Report.

FOR PREMIUM STAMPS
KING'S PALACE,
612-614 7th St. N. W.,
715 Market Place.

IT HELPED WIN BATTLES.
Twenty-nine officers and men wrote from the front to say that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People cured them of all ailments. Some were cured of dysentery, some of cholera, some of typhoid fever, some of malaria, some of ague, some of nervousness, some of sleeplessness, some of indigestion, some of constipation, some of hemorrhoids, some of piles, some of skin eruptions, some of itching, some of all these ailments. Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Sold by Henry Evans, Druggist, 925 F Street northwest.

ELECTROCUTED IN MIDAIR

Baltimore Lineman Shocked to Death While Hundreds Watched.

Crossed Wires Said to Have Been the Cause of the Fatality—The Victim Frightfully Burned by the Current—Beyond Medical Assistance When Rescued From the Pole.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 24.—Andrew D. Breen, a lineman in the employ of J. L. Blackwell & Co. electrical contractors, was electrocuted on a pole yesterday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the southeast corner of Baltimore and Front Streets.

Breen climbed a pole for the purpose of running a circuit on an arc wire leading into the Monumental Theatre. He placed his right leg across the top cross-arm, with his left foot resting upon a lower cross-arm. Scarcely had he secured himself in that position when the attention of persons in the street was attracted by a crackling noise, like that made by heavily charged electric wires when emitting sparks.

Looking up they were horrified to see that Breen's clothing was on fire. In a few seconds he threw up his arms and fell forward, his breast resting upon the top cross-arm. In that position he seemed to hold his position for some time, and then he fell. He was found by a passerby, who called the fire department. The bodies of the unfortunate have not yet been recovered, although a ship lookout will be maintained at points below Safe Harbor.

A great crowd assembled quickly, but the people were helpless to aid the sufferer. W. A. Jamison, who accompanied Breen as a helper, put on his spurs, climbed the pole and cut the wire which had given Breen his death shock. Then he caught Breen and held him on the cross-arm until means for lowering him could be obtained.

The accident was reported at No. 1 truck house. Captain Perry called a fire truck wagon to the scene, and by means of a thirty-five-foot ladder sent some of his men up the pole. They placed a belt about the body of Breen and lowered him by a rope of the ground.

Dr. Joseph B. Saunders, Coroner of the Central Police District, who was in the neighborhood when the accident occurred, was beyond medical assistance. He was badly burned from the abdomen down to the extremity of his legs, the clothing being almost burned off. The Eastern district police ambulance was called by Patrolman Kane, and by order of Dr. Saunders the body was taken to the morgue. Dr. Saunders accompanied it. On the way, owing to the draft created by the wagon, the clothing of the victim took fire from the smoldering sparks and blaz up. The wagon was stopped until the fire was smothered out.

It is the general opinion in the neighborhood that Breen's death was caused by the negligence of men in a trouble wagon of the United Railways and Electric Company, who, it is said, had cut a wire at that point a short while before and failed to notify Linemen Breen of that fact.

F. E. Wenner, who lives on the opposite side of the street from where the accident happened, states that a short while before a trolley on one of the east-bound tracks at that point and caught in an arched wire that crossed above the trolley wires and fell across the street. This wire the trouble men cut in three places, and the end of it hanging down over wires that the pole supported. Breen did not seem to know of this danger, and it is presumed that when he got to the position on the pole where he was sent to fix another wire his leg was placed across a wire that had been heavily charged from the broken wire hanging across it. Mr. Wenner said that if the end of the broken wire had been tied with a rope and secured so as to lift it from the trolley with other wires Breen would not have met his death.

Justice Adolph Sauber was one of the witnesses of the man's death, and says that it was a sickening sight. Men who shuddered at the sight and women and children cried out in agony at beholding a man being shocked and burned to death before the eyes of a multitude and no one possessing the power to help him.

COUSINS DROWN TOGETHER.

Canoeists Go Down in the Treacherous Susquehanna River.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 24.—Joshua Levering, Jr., twenty-five years old, of the coffee firm of Levering Bros., and William T. Levering, Jr., twenty-four years old, son of W. T. Levering, were drowned at Star Rock, in the Susquehanna River, yesterday by the overturning of their canvas canoe. Charles Fisher, son of Frank Fisher, of Baltimore, who was with them, nearly lost his life in an effort to save them.

A special despatch from Lancaster, Pa., describes the accident as follows: "The two young Baltimore men, William H. Levering, Jr., and Joshua Levering, Jr., who lost their lives in the Susquehanna River at Star Rock, by the capsizing of their canoe, started from Bridgeport, Pa., opposite Harrisburg, on Tuesday. They were making a pleasure trip down the river, and were accompanied by Charles Fisher, son of Frank Fisher, of Baltimore, who was with them, nearly lost his life in an effort to save them.

"All went well until Conley's Brook was reached. At this point the river is very deep and is filled with swift eddies. The craft was seized in the strong current and capsized. Both were thrown out and started to swim. They were sturdy swimmers, but soon became exhausted. "A companion, Charles Fisher, also of Baltimore, who followed in another canoe, leaped overboard and went to the rescue, but was just in time to see his friends, locked in each other's embrace, sink for the third time. Fisher, who is a nephew of the two young men, was unable to reach them, and escaped, completely exhausted. Fortunately, he was swept to within a few feet of land by the current or he would have met a similar fate.

"Only the most experienced river men attempt to navigate the stream at this point, and the strongest swimmers can survive the fierce current in a few minutes. The bodies of the unfortunate have not yet been recovered, although a ship lookout will be maintained at points below Safe Harbor.

News of the accident was received by the families of the young men last night, the telegrams being brief. They were sent by Fisher, who is a nephew of the two young men, and who was with them when they were drowned. The bodies of the unfortunate have not yet been recovered, although a ship lookout will be maintained at points below Safe Harbor.

News of the accident was received by the families of the young men last night, the telegrams being brief. They were sent by Fisher, who is a nephew of the two young men, and who was with them when they were drowned. The bodies of the unfortunate have not yet been recovered, although a ship lookout will be maintained at points below Safe Harbor.

News of the accident was received by the families of the young men last night, the telegrams being brief. They were sent by Fisher, who is a nephew of the two young men, and who was with them when they were drowned. The bodies of the unfortunate have not yet been recovered, although a ship lookout will be maintained at points below Safe Harbor.

News of the accident was received by the families of the young men last night, the telegrams being brief. They were sent by Fisher, who is a nephew of the two young men, and who was with them when they were drowned. The bodies of the unfortunate have not yet been recovered, although a ship lookout will be maintained at points below Safe Harbor.

News of the accident was received by the families of the young men last night, the telegrams being brief. They were sent by Fisher, who is a nephew of the two young men, and who was with them when they were drowned. The bodies of the unfortunate have not yet been recovered, although a ship lookout will be maintained at points below Safe Harbor.

News of the accident was received by the families of the young men last night, the telegrams being brief. They were sent by Fisher, who is a nephew of the two young men, and who was with them when they were drowned. The bodies of the unfortunate have not yet been recovered, although a ship lookout will be maintained at points below Safe Harbor.

News of the accident was received by the families of the young men last night, the telegrams being brief. They were sent by Fisher, who is a nephew of the two young men, and who was with them when they were drowned. The bodies of the unfortunate have not yet been recovered, although a ship lookout will be maintained at points below Safe Harbor.

"Hechts' Greater Stores."

513-515 Seventh Street.

$5, $6, $7, and $8 umbrellas, choice, $1.98.

Our buyer, now in the market, sends us 1,025 ladies' and men's all-silk umbrellas, representing 19 sample lines of the leading New York maker, and they all go at one-half to one-fourth regular prices.

The purchase is one of the greatest Hechts have ever made. The buyer writes: "It's by far the best lot I ever bought, for we can offer them the greatest values of their lives." Plain colored silk umbrellas in the lot, with tape and colored borders; all are of best quality tape bordered silk—mounted on double lock frames—with handles of pearl, silver trimmed and hammered gold. Wonderful opportunity. Choice for $1.98.

Band bows, 17c.
Forty dozen men's all-silk band bows—the kind sold usually at 25c and 50c—to go at 17c, or 3 for 50c.

Shield bows, 9c.
One hundred dozen men's all-silk shield bows—each sell for 25c—to go at 9c, or 3 for 25c.

$6 serge coats, $2.95
About a hundred Men's Blue and Black Serge Coats will go on sale tomorrow morning at $2.95. Single and double-breasted—a fine quality of serge. Hundreds of them have been sold this season for $3.

$5 pants, $2.50.
Your unrestricted choice tomorrow of all Men's Pants which sold up to $5 for $2.50. This includes everything—the fine striped worsteds—the nobby check cassimeres, and the like.

$1 and $1.25 Fedoras, 75c.
All our Men's Pearl Fedoras Hats that sold for $1 and $1.25 to go for 75c tomorrow.

LAND OF THE RISING SUN

The Mikado, "Son of Heaven," Descended From the Gods.

Pretty Young Women and Beautiful Children to Be Seen on Every Hand—House Thrown Wide Open So That All May Be Able to See What Transpires on the Inside.

Mrs. A. W. Wilson, wife of the Southern Methodist Bishop, who has spent a number of years in Japan, has written an interesting letter in which she discusses the conditions in the Kingdom of the Mikado, and, incidentally, in China. The letter, which is dated Kobe, August 1, follows:

"Japan, according to the patriotic Japanese, is situated at the summit of the globe. In the beginning, when the earth was separated from the heavens, Japan was found immediately opposite the sun. Perhaps that was the reason they call her Land of the Rising Sun. I can imagine no better reason, except the beauty of the country and the long, long range of mountains, clothed with a verdure that reminds one of a carpet of velvet, reaching from base to summit, all the way from northeast to southwest.

"The Japanese believe themselves descended from the gods, and hence their continued certainty of superiority over other nations. They assume to be the latest origin of the Mikado, and hence his title, Son of Heaven. Their 'Book of Traditions' is the 'Dawn of History' to the native mind.

"In my second visit to the beautiful islands I see signs of a new Japan, whose annals must be written by some ready hand.

"Woman does not live the secluded life common in other Oriental lands. Hence we see on every hand many pretty young women as well as beautiful children. The women have no reason to be ashamed of their appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I ever saw. They were handsomely dressed, according to the fashion of her country, but received us with bare feet. They do not wear shoes in their homes. Neither do foreigners tread their handsome lacquer floors until the shoe is removed. Thus our pretty hostesses received us with their feet on the outside of the door. Japan is a lovely in appearance as anyone I